Supplementary MAE application questions

1. Are you of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander origin?
   - Yes, Aboriginal ☐
   - Yes, Torres Strait Islander ☐
   - Yes, both Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander ☐
   - No ☐

2. Please identify one or more interest areas in applied epidemiology:
   - Communicable diseases ☐
   - Indigenous health ☐
   - Environmental health ☐
   - Injury epidemiology ☐
   - Chronic diseases ☐
   - One Health ☐
   - Emerging Infectious Diseases ☐
   - Other: _______________________

3. In no more than 1,000 words, please describe:
   a. your past experiences that you consider relevant to training as a field epidemiologist
   b. what you would expect to learn from the MAE program, and
   c. what are your career aspirations.

4. MAE scholars may need to shift States or Territories to take up a placement in another organisation. If you were offered a place on the program are you willing to shift States or Territories?
   - Yes ☐
   - No ☐
   - Unsure ☐

If there is any State or Territory you would not move to, please specify which ones:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
5. Do you wish to be considered for an ASEAN-Australia Health Security Fellowship Program placement? This would involve completing the first year of your MAE program in an approved Australian field placement and the second year in an approved field placement in a South East Asian country (for example Cambodia, Vietnam or Lao People’s Democratic Republic. Exact locations for approved placements in both Australia and overseas yet to be confirmed.

Yes ☐  No ☐  Unsure ☐

6. Do you give permission for the Australian National University to send out your application information to potential placements as part of the MAE application process?

Yes ☐  No ☐

Signed ________________________________

Name ________________________________

Date ________________________________

Please ensure that you send you upload your completed form with your online application.